Mr. Maclain Joyce is a highly accomplished attorney and partner at Messner Reeves LLP, leading the Corporate, Restaurant & Hospitality, and Healthcare Transactions Practice Groups. With an impressive background in both law and business, Mac brings a unique blend of legal expertise and industry insight to his practice. He is known for his exceptional ability to provide comprehensive guidance and strategic advice to a wide range of clients, including growth-stage and middle-market companies, publicly traded entities, entrepreneurs, and regulated professionals.

Mac's practice focuses on various aspects of corporate law, including corporate formation and structuring, debt and equity financing, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, and regulatory compliance. He often acts as outside general counsel for clients in the hospitality, technology, services, and craft manufacturing sectors, offering them invaluable guidance in navigating legal challenges and achieving their business goals.

Mac obtained his Bachelor's degree from The University of Colorado and a Juris Doctor degree from The University of Denver School of Law. Before joining Messner Reeves, he gained invaluable experience working for an international hospitality brand, where he focused on managing and developing private membership clubs. This background has provided Mac with real-world business knowledge that he skillfully applies to law practice, benefiting his clients.

In addition to his remarkable legal career, Mac has been recognized for his excellence in the field. He was named a Super Lawyer in 2022, a testament to his exceptional skills and dedication to his clients. This prestigious accolade underscores his commitment to providing top-tier legal representation and his reputation as a trusted advisor in the legal community.
