Ethan Reimers is a litigator focusing on personal injury, wrongful death, business and commercial litigation. Ethan handles all aspects of litigation and dispute resolution, including intake, discovery, and trial. He has extensive experience in researching, drafting, and introducing dispositive motions. Additionally, he has experience representing real estate developers and contractors in property disputes, construction defect, personal injury, and mechanic's liens claims.

Ethan earned his B.A. from the University of San Diego before going on to earn his Juris Doctor degree cum laude from the University of San Diego School of Law.

Representative matters:

- Negotiated a settlement for a waiver of costs in a lawsuit involving two wrongful death claims where damages sought were in the high six figures.
- Settled a litigated matter brought by a former insurance agent against the insurers for a fraction of the damages sought.
- Served as second chair in a bench trial successfully defending a homeowner in a neighbor vs. neighbor dispute.
- Successfully settled a matter for a waiver of costs on behalf of an insurance company in a bad faith lawsuit arising out of a first-party claim involving an alleged motor vehicle theft.
