Lynn Chang is an Associate Attorney in the Orange County office with experience in personal injury and insurance coverage and bad faith. She's represented insurance companies and policy holders related to first party and third party claims, involving personal, commercial, and errors and omissions policies, and she's litigated in state at the trial level and federal at both the trial and appellate levels.

Lynn earned her bachelor's degree from University of California Berkeley before going on to earn her Juris Doctorate degree from the George Washington University Law School. While in law school, she was an Articles Editor for the Federal Communications Law Journal. Prior to joining Messner Reeves, Lynn was an associate with Ropers Majeski and Gauntlett & Associates.

In her spare time, Lynn likes to read, edit stories, and tinker with computers.
