

CHRISTIAN S. MYERS

Associate

1550 Wewatta Street, Suite 710
Denver, CO 80202
cmyers@messner.com
303.454.5445 direct | 303.623.1800 main

Practice Areas

- Entertainment & Sports Law
- Litigation

Admissions

- Colorado

Education & Honors

- University of Nevada, Las Vegas, 2018
- DePaul University College of Law, 2021

Mr. Myers is a local to Colorado, he grew up in Castle Pines and attended Rock Canyon High School. After graduating high school Mr. Myers then moved to Las Vegas where he attended the University of Nevada majoring in Criminal Justice. In Christian's free time he played UNLV baseball and was a 4-year letterwinner on the UNLV baseball team. During this time, he was a two-time Academic All-Conference winner. After graduating from UNLV, Mr. Myers went to DePaul University College of Law in Chicago. While at DePaul he coached the Walter Payton College Prep baseball team and led them to the school's first Chicago Public League Championship in 2019. Christian has since moved back to Colorado to begin his career with Messner Reeves focusing his practice in litigation. Currently living in Denver, Christian enjoys watching all of the Denver sports teams, especially the Avalanche, and loves to play golf.

Community Involvement

- Coaches High school Baseball, within the Slammers Baseball program
- On the Board of Pitchers and Patriots, Charity that's partnered with the Wounded Warrior Project and the SEAL Legacy Foundation

Professional Experience

- During Law school he interned at a small baseball agency in San Diego called Munger English Sports Management. he also clerked at the Office of the Cook County State's Attorney within the Gangs and Special Prosecutions division.